Installation.

At the installation services of the West Berkeley Lodge, No. 21 of the order of Hermanns Sons last evening in Sister's Hall, H. Peters was substituted for A. Wansky as Vice-President, as the latter gentleman was compelled to be away. The gathering was a large and happy one. Many visitors came from Oakland and San Francisco. After the proper ceremonies of installation had been gone through with the banquet was set down to by the officers, members and friends of the order. A few short hours were whiled away in a joyful manner and then all retired to their homes fully satisfied that life was worth living.

The big ferry steamer Solano was successfully drawn up on the ways at West Oakland Sunday night last, and yesterday a large force of men were employed to repair this the largest boat in the world. It is thought that all needed repairs will be completed within two months from date.

The State's Financial Condition.

The following monthly statement of the State Controller shows that many of the State funds are at a very low ebb and it will require the most rigid economy upon the part of the State officials to avert bankruptcy in several departments until the revenues of the fiscal year are collected: General fund, $230,211 47; school fund, $215,351 60; interest and sinking fund, $107,568 05; State school land fund, $105,290; State school land deposit fund, $38,480; San Francisco harbor improvement fund, $235,563 23; State University fund, $924 50; Mining Bureau fund, $554 89; State Library fund, $8454 09; Supreme Court library fund, $2598 46; war bond fund, $2993 30; Yosemite Valley fund, $782 94; adult blind fund, $9511 49; revolving jute fund, $44,626 60; estates of deceased persons' fund, $31,889 65; railway tax fund, $49,430 95; railway tax contingent fund, $7118 36; fish commission fund, $1035 94; San Quentin State prison fund, $133,458 51; Folsom State prison fund, $73 06; Insurance Commissioners special fund $2144 45; Bank Commissioners' fund, $4006 05; State school-book fund, $35,794 28; dissolved savings banks fund, $3362 20; Fish Commission fund, purchase of boats, $1100; special Mendocino Insane Asylum fund, $15,728 73; San Diego Harbor Improvement fund, $495; San Francisco Depot Sinking fund, $29,668 50; Whittier Reform School fund, $43,819 05; Building and Loan Association inspection fund, $323; San Francisco Depot fund, $607,125; Sanitary Relief fund, $497 90. Traffic Manager Leeds has withdrawn from the Traffic Association believing that his services are no longer needed. The Valley Railroad has practically succeeded the Association.

Ex-Assessor Leckie and his Chief, W. G. Hawke, have taken an office in Oakland and will attend to the business of giving abstract titles to property in Alameda County.

Our Managers.

Trustee Hadlin was able to be out this forenoon. He showed the effects of an attack of what apparently is malaria, and indoors would be better than outdoors for his health.

Trustee Stubenrauch has never missed a meeting of the Board of Trustees until last night. Any excuse whatever would be good in his case. While there have been times that the GAZETTE has criticized him, he is entitled to a notice which is fair and honorable.

Trustee Whiting never fails to put in an appearance at all meetings of the Board. He has some advantages that other members do not. His consistency might be called his inconsistency, and yet who among us can explain the latter term in this connection.

Trustee Acton has never missed a meeting except from sickness. Often his ideas have not exactly suited the GAZETTE. All people differ, however, and yet each one is entitled to his own opinion.

Trustee Jones has, unfortunately, been able to attend only every second meeting of the Board since he became a member. He holds the balance of power and tempers it like the wind to the shorn lamb.

Et Tu Brute.

Every visitor at the Midwinter Fair remembers Boone's Arena and the lion that showed its face in the second story of the exhibition building. Many will call to mind the attempted exhibition of a fight between this lion and a bear and how the authorities put a stop to it.

In Texas there are places where such beastly fights are allowed, as will be seen by the telegraph report from Laredo. The account is only of public value as a Midwinter Fair reminiscence:

At 4 o'clock p. m. yesterday in a bullring at New Laredo, Mexico, the African lion Parnell fought a terrible battle with an enormous grizzly bear of the American type. The attendance was large. The animals fought desperately two rounds until completely exhausted, but, contrary to expectation, neither was killed. It was a bloody combat. The crowd went wild when twice the American grizzly threw his African opponent, erstwhile the king of beasts, so hard upon the ground that once, had time been called according to the usual rules, the lion would have been counted out. Throughout the battle the lion showed more agility and treachery, but the bear must be given the palm for stubborn, stolid strength. Parnell is owned by Colonel E. Daniel Boone, the lion-tamer, and is the beast that killed its keeper at the Midwinter Fair. The bear is somewhat larger and heavier than the lion and was secured at New Orleans, where he killed two keepers. It is believed to be the first time on record that such a combat has taken place.

After the Pacific Bank.

P. F. Dundon, the ex-Supervisor of San Francisco, is the latest one to take up the legal fight of the creditors and depositors of the Pacific Bank. He has filed two suits in the Superior Court, one against the officers and the other against the stockholders of the bank, each one asking for the recovery of about $2,000,000. This amount, he claims, is due to all the creditors and depositors and incidentally $2134 91 is due him.

In his complaint Dundon states that for a long time prior to the suspension of the bank, the officers neglected to supervise its affairs, and gave practically no personal care to the institution whatever; they allowed the president and vice president, he says, to run things just as they pleased; these two officers were allowed to use their own discretion in making loans, investments and mortgages, and they accepted as securities worthless notes and bonds and other things which are not usually accepted in bond dealings. The officers were also allowed, he says, to take over $1,000,000 for their own use and no security for the same was ever given. As a result of all this mismanagement, he says, the bank was forced to close its doors.

The bank is said in the complaint to owe the $2,000,000 to about 1300 creditors and depositors. It is asked that each officer of the bank be made responsible for his share of the amount, and then in a supplemental suit he makes the same plea regarding the stockholders. The defendants in the suit against the officers of the bank are R. H. McDonald, R. H. McDonald Jr., F. V. McDonald, W. A. Grade, J. J. Bowen, H. Mabury, W. H. Sherman, A. R. Stevens Columbus Waterhouse, and the Pacific Bank in its corporate sense.

Easter Eggs.

But few people have any idea that the original of the many colored "eggs" which are now being distributed as Easter gifts have probably descended to us from the greatest of the "Chinese Spring Festivals," and can boast of an antiquity of more than 700 years before the Christian era. So there appears to be no new thing under the sun; and, although the magic eggs of today are merely receptacles for a nondescript medley of bonbons and bijouterie, they are a survival, or rather revival, of one of the quaintest of old world customs.

This practical method of disposing of Easter eggs suggests that much of the ceremony connected with them is due to celebration of the Easter feast, which succeeds the Lenten fast. That "an egg at Easter" is a very old proverb in England is sufficiently shown by the fact that the Pope sent Henry VIII. an Easter egg in a silver case; while an extract schedule of the personal expenses of Edward I. contains, against Easter Sunday, the suggestive item: "Four hundred and a half eggs, 1s. 6d." The price is as noteworthy as the number.

But the most remarkable feature of the usage is its international character. Thus, in Russia, it is customary to exchange visits and eggs on Easter day and "to drink a deal of brandy." Again, in Italy, dishes of eggs are sent to the priests to be blessed, after which they are placed in the center of the table. It is the correct thing for all the guests to eat one of them. The custom also exists in Spain and Germany, and generally among the Jews, Greeks and Persians in some form or another.—Chambers' Journal.

A Queer Suit.

Judge Clark in the Superior Court at Los Angeles overruled a demurrer yesterday in the case of Tessa Kelso, City Librarian, vs. Rev. J. G. Campbell and allowed the usual ten days for the defendant to answer in. The case is a remarkable one and promises many amusing features when it comes to trial. Rev. Mr. Campbell is pastor of the First Methodist Church in that city and is also the father of young Campbell, who participated in the hazing incident at Berkeley not long since.

In the course of his public prayer one morning the pastor referred with feeling to Miss Kelso and asked the Almighty to make her a woman worthy of her office. Miss Kelso is a young lady who has a characteristic habit of getting off the street cars without asking the conductor to stop and she looked upon Dr. Campbell's unsolicited prayer with disfavor and at once began suit for damages for slander.

The G. A. R. encampment will be held in Sacramento this year, commencing on the 22d inst. The people of Sacramento have determined to outdo the encampment held in Oakland last year, and have arranged an elaborate programme for their guests. The G. A. R. and their friends will remain in Sacramento four days, or in that vicinity. The committee of arrangements have planned several excursions, one to the State Prison at Folsom, one to the orange groves at Oroville and others to adjacent towns near by the Capital city.

The delegates to the Grand Lodge A. O. U. W., now in session in Los Angeles, had a banquet tendered them last evening. From telegraphic reports they had a grand time.

J. M. Donovan of San Leandro has been appointed Fish and Game Warden by the Board of Supervisors.

The skating rink at Sister's Hall will be under the auspices of Sam Fisher.

When Mrs. Fogg saw the man at the circus riding four horses abreast, she thought it must be quite painful. "It is," replied Fogg; "in fact a genuine case of wide-spread distress."

WHAT WILL THE HARVEST BE.

The people of Berkeley are watching to see what the Independent Taxpayers are going to do at their meeting on next Saturday evening. The Nonpartisans have made their nominations and they are good ones. The Independent Taxpayers will, in all probability, endorse the greater part of the present ticket and if not will put up a strong ticket. The People's Party will select the strongest timber in their party and the prohibitionists will also select a strong ticket. When all the tickets are in the field the struggle will begin and one of the hardest fought campaigns ever known in Berkeley will be the result. Besides the regular nominees there will be several independent candidates who will make a hard fight for supremacy. It is well that this is the case for the voters will be put upon their metal and will see to it that the best men are selected for the different offices. All this portends a bright future for Berkeley and we believe that when the new officers take their seats Berkeley can point with pride to them, and they in return will serve the city well.

TOTE FAIR.

The papers, throughout the State, are now heaping abuse upon the Southern Pacific Company and are calling it and its managers all sorts of vile names. This would be all right if it was not for the fact that many of these same papers have for years asked for and received favors from this same company. The GAZETTE, while it is in favor of as many competing roads as possible, believes also in giving credit where credit belongs. The State of California owes much of its greatness to the Southern Pacific Railroad Company, which has spent many thousands of dollars in advertising its resources, both in book form and by letter and otherwise. W. H. Mills has spent several years in doing nothing else but promote immigration to this State and he has done his work well. It is true that the Southern Pacific Company charge all that the traffic will bear, but does not the merchant, the gas company, the electric light company do the same. Is there any line of business where there is no competition that does not charge all the traffic will bear? This being the case the people of this State should be fair and just to the Southern Pacific Company. It should not be hounded down for what any citizen would do were he in the same place. There is room for a competing railway in California, and it will be built, and the Southern Pacific will then have as much business as it has now and it should have. Of course, it will not be able to collect so much for freight and fares as at present, for opposition will bring these rates down.

The Southern Pacific will, however, cause a great deal of money to be spent in this State as it will build branch lines to every portion of the State that the competing line runs to, where they do not already run. When this comes about numerous papers and people will feel as though they would like to recall the many harsh words that they have published and said about the Southern Pacific. They will then remember some of the good things that have been done for California by the Southern Pacific company.
